here Mr. Wells was shown the city by W. H. Lipscombe, manager. He noted the great er of fine residences and other vements that have been made, elated that it was no wonder Lipscombe had made such a suc-the machine business.

on know Lipscombe is a good feland a fine worker," remarked Mr. in a good-natured way, "but the prosperity going on around Gainesville I do not see why I d give him extra credit." On the however, Mr. Wells stated that Lipscombe was one of the most reasive and most successful is of the company, and that he smalltime manager of the Florida ands and appreciated his efforts.

Irritation

of the throat, sore and swollen tonsils, loss of voice, and other throat troubles should never be neglected. These ailments quickly work down to the lungs, and often end in consumption or pneumonia.

HAMLINS
WIZARD OIL

used as a gargle, and externally on the throat, is a marvelous remedy for these painful and dangerous disorders, and effects relief and cure after everything else has failed.

Says Henry Wade, of Harlin, Mo.: "I am under obligations to you for the great good which Hamlin's Wizard Oil did my wife.
She suffered from Throat Trouble for a year, and though she doctored and doctored, nothing did her any good, until she tried Ham-lin's Wizard Oil." Price 50c and

BABY BURNED TO DEATH.

Children Fooled With Matches, Which Ignited Infant's Clothes.

Traxler, April 20—Friday Mahamery's two-months-old baby met a most terrible death today while its mother was working away from the house.
The other children tried to light a pipe while on the bed by the babe, and set it on fire, and as no one was near the place the babe was burned in the house, but the two larger children were saved.

Death at Prairie Creek.

Mrs. Hale, mother of F. H. Hale, died at Prairie Creek Wednesday night, after an illness of several days.
Deceased was one of the oldest residents of the county, being eighty-two years of age at the time of her death.
The remains passed through this city Thursday en route to Alachua, and the funeral will be held at that place today, the interment being in Newnansville cemetery. The arrangements will be in charge of the Thomas Undertaking Company. The Sun extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

preciation of the many courtesies extended to them by the citizens of Gainesville, in the entertainment of the Grand Lodge and the visiting Rebekahs, and assure them that their kindness will not be forgotten.

GERTRUDE CUSHMAN, N. G.
NETTIE L. ROBB, Sec.

When France Had No Sabbath.
It was during the French revolution of 1789 that a weekly Sabbath was totally abolished. The national convention which declared France a republic determined at the instance of Gebel, archbishop of Paris, to abandon Christianity and to substitute instead the worship of liberty, equality and reason.
Churches were quickly despoiled and civil feasts substituted for religious festivals. The convention also enacted that time instead of being reckoned from the birth of Christ should thereafter count from the birthday of the French revolution, the year to begin anew from that date, Sept. 22, 1792.
That the Christian Sabbath might not be observed the months were to consist of thirty days each, a day of rest being granted only at the close of each decade (every ten days). Under the directory established by a new constitution in 1795 the laws of Robespierre were repealed, the churches were reopened, and Sunday took its rightful place in the calendar.—Pearson's Weekly.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Bernett, Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 61 years old." Sold by J. W. McCollum & Co.

CUSTOMS IN MOROCCO.

The Scene at the Slave Market in Marrakish.

"From time to time we are taking our meals in the open air," writes a traveler to Morocco. "I see the shop-herd boys staring at us from a respectful distance. To them we must seem no better than savages. In the first place, we sit on chairs and not on the ground. We eat our bread, which, as every true believer knows, is a wicked act and defies Providence, since bread is from Allah and may be broken with the hand, but never touched with a knife. Then we do not know how to eat with our fingers, but use knives and forks and spoons, that after mere washing are common property. We do not have water poured out over our fingers before the meal begins—the preliminary wash in the tent is invisible and does not count—and we do not say 'Bismillah' before we start eating.
Our daily bathing seems to puzzle them greatly. I do not notice that little Lahl and his brother have ever tempted the sea to wash or drown them.
Yet they look healthy enough and are full of dignity."

Vividly depicted, too, by the same writer are the scenes in the slave market at Marrakish. "The various booths where the salesmen keep their slaves, of all ages and both sexes, are carefully screened from sight until the market opens. Then one at a time these booths empty themselves of their contents and men, women and children are marched around the inclosure, the auctioneer crying out the latest bid, and the slave owner pointing out the best features of his articles for sale.

"They are all gorgeously attired and decked out to show them off to the best advantage. One by one the youngest and the fairest and the fittest are chosen until at the end of the long, hot day only a few aged and weary and worn are left. They have tramped round and round the market all day long, but they are old and therefore not wanted."

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."
